A few days later, the B's beat the Walpole Stars 4-0. Kimball, Billy Kasper, Matt Fitzgibbons and Donovan had the goals. The upcoming weekend the B's attended the 1st Annual Fall Beantown Classic for a couple of exhibition games. Their first game they beat the USA-17 National team 2-0. Donovan and Decroo had the goals with assists from Pallos and Butler. Rossi had the shutout with 30 saves. The next day the B's had a close 1-0 win over Northwood. Falite had the lone goal with helpers from Kimball and Donovan. Kudla had the shutout with 22 saves.

The Juniors then would not have anymore games for the remainder of November for their Thanksgiving break.

~EMPIRE~

Junior Bruins Empire team started November off with a scoring spree with a 10-4 win over Salem. Peter Cox stopped 30 of 34 shots. Mike Cichy, Cody Warila and Steve Moses all had two goal games and a PPG each. Moses also had 2 assists and Cichy one. Dave Boehm had one goal with 3 assists.

The yearly battle came on the sixth against the Little B's. The Empire team won it in OT with a Mike Cichy goal. Moses had 2g and 1 assist for a 3 pt game. Joey Caveney had the other goal. Cox again came up with the necessary saves, 31 total.

Three days later, the Bruins scored high with an 8-3 win over Valley. Alan Dionne had two goals. Cichy, Warila, Moses, Caveney, John Henrion, and Zach Dahrooge all had singletons. Mike White and Boehm had 2 assist games.

On 11/11 the Bruins skated in the Top Gun Tournament. They had a 6-4 loss to the Cape Cod Whalers. Boehm, Cichy, Derek Arnold and Dom Jancaterino had one goal a piece. The next day they came back scoring to beat Hudson Valley 8-0. John Henrion had the hat trick, Dionne had 2 and Cichy, Moses and Dahrooge had one. Moses had the playmaker. Eric McGuirk had the shut out. The scoring continued with a 9-1 win over the Golden Wolves. Moses had the hat trick this game and Cichy and Caveney had the playmakers. Warila, Boehm, Jancaterino and Evan Gogonis had goals. Newcomer, Jordan Tessier also received his first goal for the BJB's. The B's lost 2-1 in the semi's to the Eagles. Gogonis had the only goal with a Sean Sullivan assist.

The Empire team then traveled to the 1st Annual Fall Beantown Classic on the 18th. Their first opponent was a 7-3 loss to Pittsburgh. Justin Alonzo, Moses and Tessier had the goals. They had a tight game later that day against Dallas. Boehm would have the game winner on a PPG with assists from Josh Burrows and Alonzo for a 1-0 win. Cox preserved his shutout with 19 saves. The next day the Bruins faced Shattuck St. Mary's and had a 5-4 loss. Warila had 2 goals while Dionne and Cichy had one. The consolation game was against Victory Honda but the B's had the victory, 3-1. Cichy, Dionne and Boehm had the goals. November came to an end with a scrimmage against Belmont Hill on the 29th. The B's had a disappointing 4-1 loss. Warila had the B's only goal.

~LITTLE BRUINS~

The Little B's opened up November with a 6-1 win over the Eagles. Colin Moore had 2 goals. Jason Molle, Jason Schneider, Mike Vasilchuk and Steve Morra had a goal a piece. Morra also had 3 assists. Ben Smith and Jeff Fanning had 2 assists. Justin Gates was solid in net with 19 saves.

The yearly battle with the Junior Bruins Empire team did not go in favor with the Little B's. In a hard fought OT battle the Empire team squeaked out the winning goal to end the score 4-3. Smith, Jon Simpson and Schneider had the goals. Andrew Glass offered 2 assists. The Little B's went to the Top Gun tournament on the 11th for their final Junior Bruins' games of the year. Their first game definitely sent a rigid chill to the players in a 7-1 loss to the Chicago Chill. Schneider had the lone goal with assists from Glass and Simpson. The next day started with a 1-1 tie against the Cyclones. Morra had the goal with helpers from Smith and Nick Vecchia. TJ Massie allowed only one goal in net. Later that evening the B's came close but not enough in a 5-4 loss to the hosting team, Top Gun. Simpson, Morra, Fanning and Josh Franklin had the goals.

The Little Bruins now return to their high school/prep teams for their winter seasons. Good Luck players!!
