Congratulations

Cody

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA-The Edmonton Oilers, fresh off an appearance in the Stanley Cups finals, used their fifth round selection on defenseman Cody Wild. Wild was taken with the 140th pick in the 2006 NHL Entry Draft and it is just one more accomplishment for the talented North Providence product.

Wild was a long time member of the Bruins organization first coming to camps and as a player of the 1987 Junior Bruins AAA tournament. He played two seasons for the Little Bruins before committing full time to the program with the Junior Bruins Midget AAA team in his junior year. It did not take him long to get bumped up the EJHL team that season after spending a few months on the midget team. It was during that short stint with the Midget AAA Bruins that he officially accepted the scholarship offer Providence College made to him. He spent his senior year with the Junior Bruins (EJHL) team and was a key player in their run to the EJHL regular season and playoff championship.

This past season at Providence he made an immediate impact for coach Tim Army and the Friars. Wild was named to the Hockey East All Rookie Team as he had a five goal, sixteen assist and twenty one point freshmen campaign.

"We are excited for Cody and are thrilled that he is realizing his dreams," Peter Masters commented. "We feel the best hockey he can play is in front of him and that he will continue to be an impact player at Providence and that playing at the NHL level is becoming more of a reality for him."

There were eight other players selected in the 2006 NHL Entry Draft that have Bruins ties (to varying degrees). Some played on our AAA tournament team while others played on one of our three fall and winter teams. They are: Joey Ryan (LA Kings), Brian Strait (Pittsburgh Penguins), Doug Rogers (NY Islanders), Jon Rheault (Philadelphia Flyers), Matt McCollem (St. Louis Blues), Brian Day (NY Islanders), Benn Ferriero (Phoenix Coyotes) and Will O'Neill (Atlanta Thrashers). Congrats to all!
